

For Our Information

Make sure you check the foyer board for announcements regarding opportunities in the region to study God's Word. Also remember to check the projector screen for such opportunities and notices regarding those who are in need of our prayers.

With summertime coming up I am sure there will be travelers among us. We need to keep one another informed of such travel so that we are aware of why you are missing and keep you in our prayers.

Keep your brothers & sisters in mind

This Caught My Eye

Often while reading online I will find articles, sermons, status updates, and other things that I feel are useful in our quest to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." It is my plan to use this part of the bulletin to bring those things to your attention. Certainly I will not be able to place these things here in full. I hope, though, that I can include sufficient information to 'whet your appetite' and point you to the source so that you can find opportunity use these resources.

What you find here may be information about a book or ebook that I have found useful in my own study. Or it may be a link to a particular website or online teacher that will assist in your study. Not everything printed here will interest everyone, but I hope that in the long run each of us will benefit. For today I point you to our own website...

Seeking His Righteousness

Tanner St Bulletin Volume 5 Number 18

May 2016

New Look, Same Truth

This world is changing fast. It seems that each time I start considering a means of spreading the Gospel I find a new method available. I sometimes wonder how Paul or Peter would use some of the new methods we have at our disposal today. I feel confident though that each of the first century messengers of Christ would want to use them in reaching the lost.

Now some of you probably think, "But bulletins have been around for several decades." Of course they have, but with advances in tech come new ways to produce the old standby we call a local bulletin. The

*"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness,
and all these things shall be added to you."*

ability to produce inexpensive color documents has given us some ‘eye catching’ possibilities, even for a small publication. What you hold in your hands is my attempt to produce such an item. Hopefully it will be successful in its single purpose—Teach the Word!

Simple Truth For Everyone

Though new methods are available we are still bound by the same directive, “Go, stand & speak...

the whole message of this Life”

The means of teaching the Word might change with the times, but the message itself must always remain the same. The will of God must be proclaimed to all those who are lost in sin. As Christians we are uniquely prepared for this task. We have already responded to the Gospel story and are convinced of its saving power.

With such a foundation established we are prepared for teaching others. Jesus spent much time near the end of His ministry instructing the ones who would carry His message to the world. Since each of us has been a student of God’s Word for many years we have the knowledge to spread that message today. Of course, as with the early disciples, we must continue to study and apply the message of Christ to our own

This space will be reserved for some scripture passages that are important for those who are diligently seeking to serve God.

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

Paul reminds us, through his own example, that we are able to accomplish anything if we first give ourselves to the service of Christ. As long as Christ is with us there is nothing that needs to be done that we cannot do.

What a wonderful thought to keep with us at all times. In Christ I am successful in my endeavors!

Remembering God’s Word is not only possible, but necessary, if we are to let Christ work through us.

lives each and every day.

Learn So You Can Teach

Study and application of the Word is a large part of our focus as a group. Our Bible Classes are designed to help us understand the Word. Having separate classes for various age groups helps focus teaching to the level needed by each group of students. Reading and discussion of the text in our adult class allows each one to help edify the others present with opportunity to share our insights. Such insights are often different because of different levels of study, experience, and wisdom. Yet each insight helps us to see a more complete picture of the Word.

This publication is also for the purpose of helping us reach the lost. It is my desire to publish articles that are helpful in our own study as well as other articles that will be beneficial in our work of reaching out to the lost in our community and the world. Tools used in helping reach the lost cannot help though unless we who are given that duty put them to use. Just as my lawnmower refuses to mow my yard until I actively use it, this bulletin will not teach anyone while it lays on the bench, or on your table. We need to start using the various tools that are at our disposal to spread the Good News of salvation in Jesus through obedience to His Word.
