

But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be accursed! Galatians 1:8

Store In My Heart

1Corinthians 1:10

Now I exhort you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be made complete in the same mind and in the same judgment.

As Paul begins his instruction to the brethren in Corinth, he pleads with them to be united. He wanted harmony among the saints. He wanted agreement in their teaching. He wanted no divisions among the ranks. This is in perfect agreement with the desire of our Lord as He prayed to the Father on the night He was betrayed.

It has been said, and I agree, when two teach different things on the same subject, either one is wrong or both are wrong. The only way to be certain that we can have harmony is to keep our focus and teaching in accordance with the inspired Scripture.

Jesus demonstrated His divine authority and Person by the miracles He did (John 20:30-31; Acts 2:22-33). His Apostles were empowered to work miracles in order to prove that their message came from God (Mark 16:19-20; Hebrews 2:1-4). Thus we have recorded for our constant remembrance divine proof of teaching from God. We can draw near to God in full assurance of faith, having obeyed divine instruction by which we have obtained remission of our past sins through the blood of Jesus Christ (Hebrews 10:1-25; Acts 2:38; Ephesians 1:7).

God does not contradict Himself. He cannot lie (Titus 1:2; Hebrews 6:18). Self-styled "prophets" have come in later times in increasing numbers, making claims of divine revelation contrary to the clear teaching of the Bible, and leading many gullible souls into false religious beliefs and practices. They demonstrate their own falsehood each time they contradict the Bible. For example, Joseph Smith claimed to have received the Aaronic priesthood from John the Baptist, but even Jesus Christ Himself could not be such a priest while on earth (Hebrews 7:11-14). Smith taught plural marriages, contradicting both the Bible and his own Book of Mormon. The Bible states that the faith of Jesus Christ was "once for all time delivered to the saints" (Jude 3), but false prophets are continually adding new "revelations," new forms of worship, and new modes of behavior condemned clearly by the New Testament. Notably absent is divine proof of such revelations, though some false prophets try to deceive others "by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error" (Ephesians 4:14). Of "the man of sin, the son of perdition", the Scripture says, "Whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved" (2Thessalonians 2:1-12). Peter warns against false prophets and the destruction that they bring upon themselves and others (2Peter 2:1-3). Let us not be among their victims!

("Though we or an angel from heaven..." Paul's words to the brethren in Galatia come to mind while reading this article. Once God revealed His word regarding salvation through the death of His Son, no other message mattered. We must follow His Will alone in all things.)

We seek only to serve God according to His Will!
