

Who Is A God Like You Micah 7

Who is a God like Jehovah?

What comparison can we try to give or imagine that would help us understand the kind of God we serve?

How do you measure His stature?

How do you behold His glory?

What is man to be mindful of Him?

Awesome God!

"The Lord answered Job out of the storm" Job 40:6 and what a storm that was. - Job 40:6-14

How do you compare the feeble ant like features of man to the universal expanse of the greatness of the Almighty?

Reading Job 40-41 man is placed in his subservient role of the creation before the mighty hand of the Creator.

O Lord, how large your ocean; how small my boat.

"Who is a God like you" demands answers regarding the insignificance of man.

We are not left without answer as Micah gives cry to the likeness of the Lord in His mercy, love, compassion and forgiveness. - Micah 7:18-19

What Can Man Raise Up To Rival The Pardoning Of God?

How often rebel against Him & His word, yet He offers remission of sins.

In Jesus Christ we have the blessing of redemption. - 1John 1:9

We fail to live up to the will of the Father and yet He is longsuffering. - 1Timothy 1:15-16

Unlike men, in our rebellion the Lord does not retain His anger forever but releases our sins through His Son and holds no charge against us. - Isaiah 57:16; Ephesians 1:7-8; Hebrews 8:12

The Almighty loves to give grace and mercy to His people.

Ephesians 2:4-7

His compassion brings about the breath of forgiveness and peace. - Philipians 4:6-7

How do you compare what God does with our sins?

In a figure the Lord cast our sins "into the depths of the sea" - Micah 7:19

The psalmist defines this 'deepness' - Psalms 103:12

"Who is a God like You" is not a question but a declaration of truth.

The answer is self-evident.

There is nothing man has done or will ever do that can compare to the slightest hint of the border of the hem of the expanse of God's love and forgiveness.

R. M. Lehman wrote, "Could we with ink the ocean fill, and were the skies of parchment made; were every stalk on earth a quill, and every man a scribe by trade. To write the love of God above would drain the ocean dry; nor could the scroll contain the whole, though stretched from sky to sky" (Hymn, The Love of God).
