

Stewardship - Self

Luke 12:42-48

Stewardship

A steward is a trusted servant to whom the master has delegated responsibility in helping to promote his affairs

Implies ownership (Potiphar bought Joseph) - 1Corinthians 6:19-20

God Owns Me

By creation - Genesis 1:27

By providence - Acts 14:17; Psalms 24:1

By redemption - Ephesians 1:7

Involves Faithfulness - 1Corinthians 4:2

Obedience, follow instruction - Deuteronomy 10:12-13; 11:26-28; Matthew 7:21-23

God's claim is above all other obligations - Matthew 10:37-39; Acts 4:18-20

God Owns Our Bodies

We are to glorify God in body - 1Corinthians 6:19-20

Body -- instrument of righteousness - Romans 6:12-13

Paul - not brought under power of other things - 1Corinthians 6:12

Gave themselves to the Lord - 2Corinthians 8:5

We are accountable for things done in the body - 2Corinthians 5:10

Present our bodies to God a living sacrifice - Romans 12:1

Christians are stewards of their lives twice over - Acts 20:28

Not for our own pleasure without owner's consideration

Proper and considerate use always required.

Made available for owner's use - 2Timothy 2:21

Our Soul And Life Belongs To God - Ezekiel 18:4

God made us - Psalms 139:13-16; Isaiah 43:7

He sustains all life - Acts 17:25,28; Matthew 6:26-30; Psalm 104

Accountable For Stewardship - Luke 16:1-2

Results of good stewardship is righteous - Philippians 3:7-11

JerryHenderson/WhitSasser