The Meaning Of Acceptable Worship

The origin of the word.

The English word "worship" derives from "worth-ship" and implies an expression of worthiness, honor, praise, or exaltation.

Someone said, "His worth-ship demands my worship."

English "worship" translates several Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek

Shachah, H7812 primary O.T. term translated as worship - to "prostrate oneself or to bow down."

- Exodus 23:24; 2Kings 17:35-36

Proskuneo, G4352 primary NT word, occurs 60 times - "to kiss toward one in token of reverence."

There are several misconceptions relative to meaning of the word.

Many teach worship and service are same - all we do is worship.

Ervin Bishop said that worship "encompasses the worshipper's total life and relationship with God" Firm Foundation, March 1973, p. 7.

Jim McGuiggan wrote, "Worship is as broad as the Christian life." (doing homage, honoring.)
Romans Comm., pp. 338-348.

All worship is service, but not all service is worship.

Distinguish between worshiping & serving - Deuteronomy 11:16; Matthew 4:10

Going to worship - not all life is worship - Genesis 22:5; Acts 8:27

Many today teach that worship of God is not defined in Scripture.

"worship of God is nowhere defined in scripture" Vine's, p. 1259

Given O. Blakely said, "Precisely where has God authorized any element of worship in any place at any time?" - Leviticus 10:1-7

God always defined worship He desires - John 4:24; Hebrews 11:4; Matthew 2:2
