

Honoring Mothers Proverbs 6:20-24

Today We Celebrate Mothers

Though origins have been questioned I know of no one who thinks honoring mothers is a bad idea. Mothers are important and we ought to give them proper consideration - Proverbs 29:15; 31:28-31

Mothers Should Be Honorable

I could in all good conscience include my mother and both grandmothers in such a list. I believe they would consider that an honor.

Some 'mothers' are not honorable.

Several examples in Scripture, though they gave birth, they did not follow godly principles and thus were not honorable.

Key to honor for mothers is same as for all

Follow God's Word and train your children

We also must remember the need to remain honorable even with our grandchildren
