A Few More Thoughts

If the claims of the Scriptures are false, none of them are authoritative, but constitute a book made up by deceit and falsehood. On the other hand, if the claim of the Scriptures is true, then all of it is true, and people cannot rightly pick and choose what they will accept. Can you imagine the wickedness of a world devoid of the principles of morality, righteousness, integrity, respect for human life and the rights of individuals, and the purpose of life and hope for humanity as taught in the Scriptures? If the Scriptures are not inspired of God, then we have a world devoid of divine guidance, and the utterly corrupt people have the same basis of authority as that of the most righteous people. Do you believe that they have equal authorization?

How long will people continue to vacillate? What will you believe and practice?

Why I Believe The Bible To Be The Word Of God

Kent E. Heaton Sr.

Holy Bible - a titled inscribed on the cover of a book - a name setting apart from other books a compilation of writings spanning over a period of 1500 years. Forty different men from diverse backgrounds and different parts of the globe penned stories of history, words of poetry, laws of civil, criminal and religious regulations and narrated the lives of men and women who sought a home not yet possessed. This book of books unveils prophetic utterances fulfilled in diminutive detail over centuries of nations rising against nations and empires rising and falling. In exacting detail the stories spring forth from the pages of the Holy Bible that find themselves in accurate reliance of known facts - and some yet to be discovered.

The Holy Bible is a book unlike any book that has ever been placed in the hands of man. From its pages glow the love of God, the compassion of His Son and the power of the Spirit. In each word and within each sentence the mind is filled with the presence of yesterday and the hope of tomorrow. From the beginning of the creation of the world to the beginning of a new heaven and a new earth, each book unfolds the majesty of a Creator's love for His creation and His love in action by giving His only Begotten Son as a gift of salvation for my lost condition.

I learn about God's love as He did not destroy mankind in the garden but cast him forth from His presence so that one day He could return in a garden called Gethsemane. The trials of man were to be measured by the sacrifice of an innocent man. Each book of the Holy Bible begins and ends with the message of the coming hope in a crucified Savior. Over the centuries of time, the revelation of the mind of God points to that moment in Palestine where the fully revealed word of God would become known.

After the darkness of that death, a new birth was given to man as He who died lives anew. The writers of the testament anew tell of the peace and hope afforded through the resurrected Savior. Death is no longer feared and life is understood in all of its complexity. One apostle wrote, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or

Store In My Heart

Psalms 55:22

Cast your burden upon the Lord and He will sustain you; He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.

This is another verse that will give us much comfort. No matter the difficulty we might find our self needing to overcome, the Lord is with us to help us through. His protection and care is always available to those who belong to Him. David put his trust in the Lord and was able to deal with a number of difficulties. Even when he brought difficulty upon himself through sin, David knew that if he would return to God it could be overcome.

Those who are righteous can always depend upon the Lord to help us with any difficulty, as long as we serve Him.

distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter." Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (The Apostle Paul - Romans 8:35-39).

The Holy Bible is a book that gives comfort in a life that is marred with discomfort. It gives light to a world filled with darkness. The words of the Holy Bible sound forth hope in ears filled with despair. Peace reigns within the halls of its chapters as war is fought all around. Through the power of the message of the gospel men who were enemies become brothers. From the depths of its mysteries the world is made known. The veil of secrecy is lifted when viewing through the portals of its books, the world beyond is known and eternity is grasped.

No book can claim the power of this book. Only from the mind of God can such a book be given to mortal man. All that man needs to live on this earth and find happiness and all that he shall seek after in the veil beyond death is delivered from the hand of God. The Bible is the only word of God and no other book can match its message nor its power. While the critics and those who seek to add another testament rail against the power of its words, "Forever, O Lord, Your word is settled in Heaven." Psalm 119:89.
